

Crimson Explorer

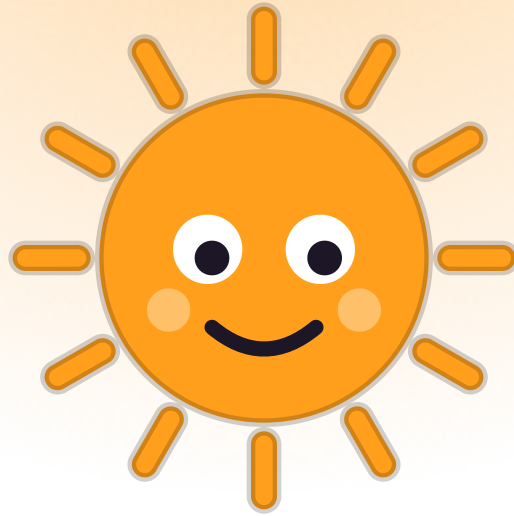

You love to try new things first! You are brave, quick and full of energy. Your superpower is getting everyone moving. Remember to check if your friends are ready to come along too.

Every color is a great color · whatsmypersonalitycolor.com

Cobalt Captain

You like to make a plan and lead the way! You are organized and you help your team finish what it started. Your superpower is turning a big idea into steps. Remember to ask what other people think of the plan.

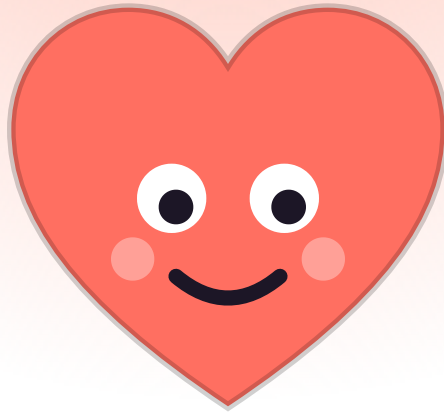

Amber Sunshine

You make friends easily and you love to laugh! You have big ideas and you share them with everyone.

Your superpower is cheering people up.

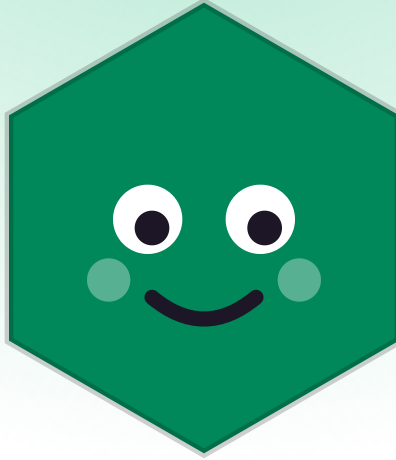

Remember to finish one fun thing before starting another.

Coral Helper

You love helping your friends and family! You notice when someone feels left out and you make a plan to include them. Your superpower is teamwork. Remember to take care of yourself too.

Every color is a great color · whatsmypersonalitycolor.com

Emerald Builder

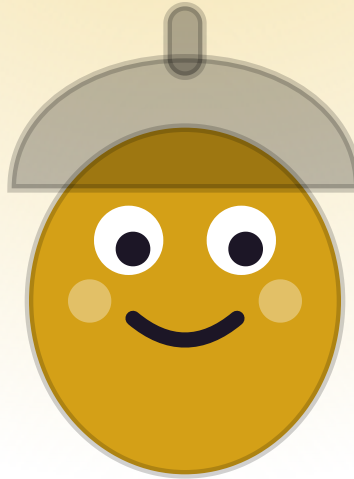

You like to do things carefully and get them just right! You think before you act and you notice small details. Your superpower is building things that work. Remember it is okay to make mistakes while you learn.

Every color is a great color · whatsmypersonalitycolor.com

Violet Inventor

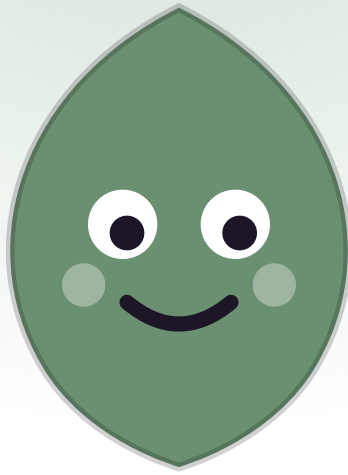

You have the most interesting ideas! You love asking why and imagining new things. Your superpower is being creative. Remember to share your ideas, because other people want to hear them.

Gold Guardian

You are a great friend who always keeps promises!

You like knowing what comes next and you help things stay calm and fair. Your superpower is being someone others can count on. Remember new things can be fun too.

Sage Listener

You are kind and calm, and friends tell you their secrets! You notice feelings and you like peaceful places. Your superpower is understanding others. Remember your own feelings matter just as much.